A "POEM."

The editor of the Arizona Enterprise, who attended a party, was smitten with the charms of a fair damsel who wore a rose on her forehead, and gushed as follows about it:

Above her nose
There is a rose;
Below that rose
There is a nose;
Nose, rose,
Rose, nose,
Sweet nose,
Dear nose.

Below her chin
There is a pin,
Above that pin
There is a chin;
Pin, chin,
Chin, pin,
Sweet pin,
Dear chin.

E. A. Shelton, an El Paso poet, goes for that chap as follows:

Above the stool
There is a fool,
Below the fool
There is a stool;
Stool, fool,
Fool, stool,
Blamed fool.

Below his seat
There are 2 feet,
Above these feet
There is a seat;
Seat, feet,
Feet, seat,
Soft seat,
Big feet.

The El Paso poet is right regarding the Arizona editor.

Above that gas
There was an ass,
Below that ass
There ought to have been
Gas enough to pass
The ass from earth
Into apple sass;
Ass, gas,
Gas, ass,
Apple sass.

OUT AT GEORGETOWN.

Georgetown heard from, and as usual on the skirmish line of advance American thought and ideas.

The library association held a called meeting at the residence of A. Dow, president of the association, on Saturday evening. The original programme decided, of holding a picnic on July 4th, was discussed. The majority of the members decided that the picnic be held.

It was agreed to accept with thanks the offer by Mr. W. R. Carpenter, of his walnut grove just north of town as the place.

The various committees being appointed, it was agreed to invite one or more speakers competent to discuss such topics as "What are the highest qualifications for American citizenship," or the "highest qualifications of an American business man." After which the young people enjoyed the delights of social intercourse and the pleasure of an appetizing surprise, then adjourned to meet on call of executive committee.

EDITOR PLANT IN TROUBLE

A Boonville Editor and a Handsome Young Lady.

The Moberly Democrat contains the following relative to B. W. Plant's escapade:

Shortly after noon yesterday, but in time for dinner a gentlemanly appearing man accompanied by a neatly dressed good looking lady entered the Arlington and registered as Charles W. Deane and wife from Denison, Texas, and were assigned to room 32.

In the afternoon they took a stroll around the city inspecting the sights but conducting themselves in a circumspect manner. At 1:44 p. m. Marshal Lynch received the following dispatch.

BOONVILLE, Mo., June 4, '91.

CITY MARSHAL,
Moberly, Mo.
Arrest B. W. Plant dressed in grey clothes and Maggie Kloethe 16 years old, black case and dress and black straw hat, on M. & T. train.

W. W. TALLAFAR,
City Marshal.

Our city officers at once went to work on the matter but could find no parties answering the above description, which proved to be entirely wrong as to the clothing worn by the fugitives. The parties calling themselves Chas. W. Deane and wife were waiting the street and were seen several times by Marshal Lynch and deputies but either had changed their dress or never left Boonville dressed as described in the dispatch, hence the police made no arrest.

Last night the brother of Maggie Kloethe alias Mrs. Deane, of Denison, Texas, arrived, and in company with the police started out on a hunt, and soon found the following entry on the Arlington register: "Chas. W. Deane and wife, Denison, Texas."

Going to the room, No. 32, the parties were waked up, and were by the brother at once recognized as his sister and B. W. Plant, of the Boonville Star. The young lady was taken in charge by her brother and taken back to her home on the morning train.

Mr. Plant is now in charge of an officer waiting for the arrival of the Cooper county sheriff. The name of the young woman's brother is D. A. Kloethe, and he was accompanied by a friend named J. W. Lily. Mr. Kloethe recognized the hard writing on the register of the hotel and rushed frantically up to the door of room No. 32 and demanded admittance. He was refused when he began to raise a regular old-fashioned rumpus. Drawing his pistol he tried to break the door and to kick it in, making such a noise that he soon had all the barriers at the hotel up and in the halls. Mr. Bennett hearing the disturbance went to him and compelled him to desist and acting under Mr. Bennett's advice he got the city officers and they made the arrests for him. He and his friend Lloy took the early Kary for Boonville.

An interview just held with Mr. Plant, who is in charge of Officer Osborn disclosed the fact that his real name is B. W. Plant, that he is a married man and editor of the Boonville Star. He says, "Three days ago, in Boonville I saw the girl Kloethe and she told me she was going to leave home—that her brother treated her so brutally she could not stand it. I advised her not to do so but she persisted in her determination. The next day I saw her again and as the result of a conversation with her I went up to her house, but failed to get to see her. It was so stormy and raining that I did not stay around the house very long but went back home and went to bed and thought no more about the matter. Yesterday between eleven and twelve o'clock, she came to my office, and I again saw her. She told me she had passed the office several times that morning, but if she did I did not see her. She again said that she was going to leave—that she was going to Ohio. I again tried to dissuade her from so doing, but my efforts were useless. She is a very pretty little girl. She said she could no longer stand the treatment at home and would under no circumstances go back. She had no money. I asked her how she would go without money. She answered that she would walk if necessary, and then said "you have plenty of railroad passes." I walked to the depot with her when she proposed that I furnish the passes and go as far as Moberly with her. I did so. Of course I registered under an assumed name as any one would have done, and you know the rest."

Plant is rather a good looking young man of about 32 years of age. He seemed to be a little under the influence of liquor when interviewed by your reporter and somewhat excited but seemed to feel his position keenly. J. M. Ryner, deputy sheriff of Cooper county, arrived from Boonville on the train at 2 p. m. and Mr. Plant was handed over to him at once by the city marshal. The sheriff had with him the warrant for Plant's arrest in which he is charged with taking the girl, Maggie Kloethe, who is under eighteen years of age, away from her father for the purpose of prostitution. The officer states that the girl and her family stand fairly well in the city of Boonville. The sheriff also states that there is not a great deal of excitement at Boonville over the matter. He took Plant back this afternoon.

From a gentleman who came over from the "vine clad city" yesterday it was learned that Plant was met at the depot by a delegation of Boonville's colored citizens and that he was at once placed in jail.

WELL MERITED PRAISE

In almost every neighborhood there are one or more persons whose lives have been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who have been cured of chronic diarrhoea by it. Such persons take special pleasure in recommending the remedy to others. The praise that follows the introduction and use makes it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Aug. T. AN INVITATION ACCEPTED.

HEADQUARTERS OF MEXICAN VETERANS ASSOCIATION OF CENTRAL MISSOURI, Sedalia, Mo., June 6th, 1891.

Carl R. P. Archer, secretary, committee of the Blue and Gray encampment, Sedalia, Mo.

DEAR SIR:

Your invitation to the Mexican Veterans association of Central Missouri, to be your guest at the blue and the gray encampment at Sedalia, Mo., on the 3rd and 4th of July, has been received and I most cheerfully accept same on behalf of our association, with the hope that much good may be accomplished, and that the mingling together of those who wore the blue and the gray may cement the fraternal feeling which is common to the truly brave.

As the time rolls on the numbers of our association are diminishing, not over a score may answer to roll call on the 3rd and 4th of July, but the hearts of these are as true to the stars and stripes and as loyal to the constitutional government as when they followed the flag from the Rio Grande to Buena Vista, and from Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico.

We feel a lively interest in the result of your meeting and wish you every success.

H. M. BLEDSOE, president.

THOMAS P. HOY, secretary.

A HUSBAND'S MISTAKE.

Husbands too often permit wives, and parents their children, to suffer from headache, dizziness, neuralgia, sleeplessness, fits, nervousness, when by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine such serious results could easily be prevented. Druggists everywhere say it gives universal satisfaction, and has an immense sale. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind. Snow & Co., of Syracuse, N. Y. J. C. Wolf, Hillsdale, Mich.; and hundreds of others say "it is the greatest seller they ever knew." It contains no opiates. Trial bottles and fine book on Nervous Diseases free, at A. T. Fleischmann's.

RESEMBLANCE BETWEEN HUSBAND AND WIFE.

It is by no means a new theory that a man and woman who have been married a great number of years grow to resemble each other, not only in manner and voice, but actually as to features and expression. A recent number of the Illustrate Welt has an article on this subject, which states that the photographic association of Geneva has quite lately been investigating the truth of this theory by the aid of the camera. The photographs of seventy-eight elderly or very old married couples were taken, and an equal number of family groups. The results proved quite satisfactory, to holders of this theory, inasmuch as in twenty-four cases the resemblance between husband and wife was much greater than that between brother and sister, and in thirty cases more it was fully as great. The failure of the other twenty-four old couples to realize the expectations of those interested in the matter is supposedly due to "incompatibility of disposition," which time was apparently unable to combat in its effects.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their popularity purely on their merits. Mertz & Hale, Druggists.
